A couple weekends ago I got to spend the weekend with some mighty men of God. It was such an honor and privilege to watch the body of Christ work together. Getting to know each other and past history we all have, but then watching the lord work through everyone in his way. Stretching all of us where we need to be stretched. Showing us that he has more and more for each of us than we ever thought possible. I always try to put him in a box or in my comfortable space. Then he always blows the box to pieces and shows up way past what I had ever expected and then again, I try and put him back in the box.

Remember we are all a part of the body of Christ, and we are all just as important as the rest! The lord is head and does all the work, we are just the tool that he uses! Keep the tool sharp and available, the lord has many plans for you!!!!

Love you guys and galls, keep pressing in!!!

Justin

FINDING PEACE THROUGH SUBTRACTION:

It seems we live in a society where people are seeking life by having more. More money, more friends, more knowledge, more studies, more busyness. But, our Father speaks in a "still, small voice" from within, meaning we have to silence all the 'mores into less,' in order to hear Him clearly. Fasting, for example is subtracting something, in order to restore inner peace and a clear voice. The 'more' we lay down the clutter, the more our peace returns to strengthen us. Blessings.
